SHIRKING FROM HOME

For remote employees, meetings and deep work are now coupled with online shopping, soothing puzzles and video games, and an array of other distractions.

DO NOT DISTURB!

One of the biggest challenges for people who are working from home for the first time is staying on task. Your home offers a variety of distractions that can pull you away from your work at any point, affecting your productivity.

There are ways to remedy this, though. Here are tips to avoid troublesome distractions when working from home:

- Work from a spot that facilitates boundaries
- Organize your workspace to increase productivity
- Set clear expectations with other people in your home
- Don't let your electronics hijack your attention
- Set clear boundaries between work time and personal time
