WTC COMMUNITY WEEKLY

Spend Some, Save Some

It's almost that time of the month again where we get all excited for a second and then, boom, reality strikes.

You've got bills to pay.

Mortgages, installments, household spending, you name it. But of course we are entitled to spoil ourselves every now and then, right? We work for it, we earn it, we deserve it.

I personally like to compare before I buy anything. I do most of my purchases online these days so it's only a click away to find the best deals. I'm that 'every-penny-counts' type of person.

In addition, there are also apps where you basically take photos of your receipts (supermarkets, restaurants, pharmacy, petrol, transportations etc) and you'll get coins to cash out when you've hit the minimum balance.

It's like a little tuck-away money that you might not remember having but could potentially save you on your rainy days.
