

INSIGHT

WTC COMMUNITY WEEKLY

Selamat Tahun Baru!

Nothing screams "time flies" more than the last few dates of a calendar.

It felt like yesterday when we first adapted to a hybrid working scheme, hustled our way during rush hour to the office, and removed the face mask in open air.

Here at the WTC Complex, we've seen familiar faces during lunch break, we've participated in offline events again, all that we missed for the past 2 years.

And now, here we are. More prepared than ever, more ready to go into the new year.

So here's to 2022. For all the lessons learned, friends met, achievements unlocked and memories made.

See you in 2023!

Yours truly,

the community editor