Eid Mubarak!

As Ramadan draws to a close, Muslims all over the world will be celebrating Eid al-Fitr (also known as Eid ul-Fitr) on May 12-13.

Eid is known in Indonesia as Hari Raya Idul Fitri, or more popularly as Lebaran, and is a national holiday.

Normally people would return to their hometown (an exodus known as mudik) to celebrate with their families and to ask forgiveness from parents, in-laws, and other elders.

Festivities start the night before with chanting the Takbir and lighting lamps. Followed by Eid prayer in the following morning, visiting the graves of relatives, halal bi halal with families and friends, and big traditional feast at home.

What about you? How will you celebrate Lebaran this year?
